Customer Reviews

Vague, inaccurate, poorly thought out obviously intended to draw attention to the author rather than inform the reader. She didn't even do the most basic of research. Example: page 88: "Contrary to common belief there is no native Hawaiian pine, except that which produces pineapple." The pine is from the family "pinaceae" whereas the pineapple is a "bromeliaceae". The pineapple is indigeneous to South America, not Hawaii and was introduce to Hawaii sometime in the 1800's. Had she spent 30 seconds on the net she would have known this. Other mistakes to numerous to mention. Purchase this book if you desire expensive, colourful toilet paper.

It is easy to follow and locate what you're looking for. I found the book educational, entertaining and full of lovely pictures.
